As you prayerfully consider joining the Volunteer Corps for Agape House, Inc, please carefully and thoughtfully review the below details:

- We do run legal background checks on all Volunteers to ensure that those who will be working with the girls in our care will not be a threat to them or to themselves.
- Although we do not have a specific number of hours you must commit each year to Agape House, Inc., we do ask that if you are willing to volunteer, you are able to offer a reasonable amount of time that fits within your schedule.
- Agape House, Inc. is a ministry in place to assist girls who are struggling. Ministry is at the heart of all we do, and should be a guiding force as you interact with our girls, with those associated with Agape House, Inc., and with those with whom you come in contact while representing Agape House, Inc.
- By signing below, you affirm that all of the information included is accurate to the best of your knowledge and you are comfortable with the policies and practices in place.
